Try walking, cycling or getting public transport as a preference to car use. You will benefit by feeling healthier, happier and save money.

Additional benefits of ‘active’ transport include reduced greenhouse gas and cleaner air.

The information on this page is for information purposes only. Western Sydney Institute is not responsible for any loss, damage, cost or expense you may incur as a result of any error, omission or misrepresentation in relation to this page or of any websites linked to this page. Western Sydney Institute excludes to the maximum extent permitted under the law any liability including but not limited to liability in negligence, which may arise as a result of your use of the information on this page or of your access or attempts to access other websites on this page which have been included for information purposes only. Western Sydney Institute is not responsible to you for any websites linked to this page. Links to other websites are provided for convenience only and are outside the control of Western Sydney Institute. These websites linked to this page may not be current or maintained. Western Sydney Institute does not endorse the information contained on those other websites linked to this page.
Trains
- Quakers Hill station is approximately 1.4 km from TAFE. It is serviced by the Western and Cumberland lines with trains running approximately every 30 mins.
- Walk to TAFE from the station in about 15 minutes along Douglas Road, Eastern Road and Warawara Circuit. Road crossings are safe and the pedestrian paths are wide and well lit.
- Cycle to TAFE from the station in 5 minutes.

Walking
- Walking is encouraged because of how good it makes you feel. Consider walking if your trip is less than 2km or 30mins.

Cycling
- Consider cycling to TAFE if your trip is less than 10 km or 30 minutes. Ask others who cycle to show you the best routes. Dedicated cycle lanes are available on the Quakers Hill Parkway, M7 Westlink and surrounding streets.

Car Pooling

Buses
- Busways 740 (Plumpton to Macquarie Park via M2) and 745 (St Mary’s to Castle Hill via Stanhope Parkway) stop inside the campus. Busways 752 (Blacktown - Quakers Hill - Rouse Hill) stops close to the entrance of the Nirimba Education Precinct. Buses run most frequently during the morning and afternoon peaks. For more information visit www.transportnsw.info.

Taxis
- Taxis 13 10 17 (Premier).
- Google maps is available on smart phones and the internet. This site calculates how long it takes to get from where you are to TAFE using any method you select, whether it be walking, cycling, driving or public transport.